Specializing predominantly in cryptocurrency trading, the company changed focus during 2021 in order to capitalize on the huge growth of day trading activity and also to invest in other Investment sectors as seen on our website(rentotrade.com).

Rentotrade recognizes that the current trading activities may be a trend, although we do believe this is now an entrenched part of financial investing strategies for quite a few investors. With this in mind, we seek new lines/investments to ensure the steady growth and survival of our company. By 2022, we maintained the same incorporation and same level of senior executives for three consecutive years. Under this stable new management, growth and opportunity has been outstanding. The company is poised for additional growth and our history proves that we can manage tough times and emerge as a leader of our particular industry.
